

SYMPHONY OF DEMOCRACY

People are yelling,

The anger increases.

There's no freedom without respect.

I pick up my baton,

And conduct a symphony.

Every instrument plays its part.

They are all equally important.

Through my music, I will say

"Try to compromise, it'll be better that way"

Violins sing and bassoons hum.

The majority rules with minority rights. We will build back the harmony,

Through the symphony of democracy.