

Uniqueness of people

A villanelle

The way each person is unique,
Giving the crowd a blend of characteristic,
Makes the world a fascinating place.

A blend of uniqueness and characteristics,
Is like a fruit salad,
The way each person is unique.

But some people don't seem to understand,
That it's the mix of people,
Makes the world a fascinating place.

But some people put their anger on others,
For anger is a captive animal,
The way each person is unique.

What would life be,
If we were the exact same,
Makes the world a fascinating place.

We must be unique and different,
But remain equality,
The way each person is unique,
Makes the world a fascinating place.
