

BANJO SONG FOR THE WORLD

I play my banjo, sing a song.

Feel the rhythm all day long.

Freedom, peace, rights, and love.

That's the most important of them all.

Freedom shows life.

It shows who you are.

Never let someone bring you off.

Show your rights.

Make it fair.

We can't stay in the shadows forever, I fear.

We're in this together all day long.

Nothing stops us from now on.

Talk to the people.

Talk to the world.

Talk to everyone.

Show your peace.

Make things right.

Speak your freedom.

Speak others' too.

Let's make the world peaceful through.
