

Democracy

My voice is my strength,
I speak with courage,
That is what gives me my depth,
That is what I will do till the end of my age.

Our voice is our strength,
We speak with courage,
That is what gives us our depth,
That is what we will do till the end of our age.

Because only through words we can feel,
Because only through deciding together,
Because only through standing together,
Only together can we truly seal,

A dream of a democratic world tomorrow.
